These Companies targets exhibitors' through legitimate exhibition guides. Their current activities cover exhibitors throughout Europe, the Americas and Asia. These Companies claims to offer online listing services. They use a form which resembles an organiser's free catalogue listing service, inviting exhibitors to complete the form for an entry in an on-line directory. Unsuspecting exhibitors who sign and return the form are then contracted into a three-year, non-retractable agreement, which could cost a significant amount of money, with no foreseeable benefits. Included in their group is debt collection agency Gravis Inkasso GmbH and Swiss debt collection agency Premium Recovery AG (a Construct Data subsidiary) which works in partnership with the various guides to intimidate exhibitors into paying.

We would like to inform all our exhibitors that we have not authorised such Companies to use our registered trademarks including our events name and, for the avoidance of doubt, we are not involved in the activities carried out by these Companies. We strongly advise our exhibitors, and the entire exhibition community, to be most vigilant against these and similar Organisations / Companies. We shall not be responsible in any way whatsoever for any loss caused by such frauds.

There are many so-called guides that mail deceptive contracts and then harass those who sign them in error for money. However, the sheer scale and systematic way in which these guides attack exhibitors is outrageous. Additional information is available on the website of UFI (The Global Association of the Exhibition Industry): here. < <https://www.ufi.org/industry-resources/warning-construct-data>>.
